A TROT THAT DREW A HOST OF TURF-MEN OUT IN THE RAIN.

Times Around Prospect Park Without Catching it-Richard Wins with Ease. The much-talked-of trotting match between S. Foster Dewey's chestnut gelding Richard and Mr. Frank Work's chestnut gelding Edward, for $1,000 a side, play or pay, mile heats, best three in five, in harness, came off yesterday afternoon, over the Prospect Park Fair Grounds Association's track. Both trotters have fast records—Richard 2:21 and Edward 2:19. The match grew out of afterdinner talk, and a large amount of money was bet on the result. Great interest was manifested in the match as the time for the trot drew near, and if the day had been fine, in all probability the immense stand in Prospect Park could not have held all the men eager to see the trot. As it was, more genuine turimen turned out than have met together in years before at a trot. Among the well-known faces were those of Charles Bachman, W. H. T. Mali, J. W. Gray, W. Rutter, H. M. Whitehead, J. Harper, W. Turnbull, David Bonner, Alley Bonner, John Ellis, Shepherd Knapp, M. P. Bush, Joseph Godwin, Foster S. Dewey, Frank Work, Major Morton, J. B. Ayres, L. D. Packer, Carl S. Burr, H. D. McCoon, S. Dunn, Jacob Vanderbilt, Police Commissioners Nichols and French, ex-Chief Kelso, and Messrs. Parker, Parkes, Eastman, and scores of others. A four-

When the horses appeared for the trot in the rain. Dan Mace, shrouded in a white rubber coat, sat behind Richard, while John Murphy, envelored in a black rubber coat, held the lines behind Edward.

Before the start pools were sold at an average of $50 on Richard against $40 on Edward.

The track, which is of loam, and nearly soft enough when dry for a racecourse, presented a two-inch surface of mud when the horses appeared for the word, and the rain never ceased while the contest was in progress. This, of course, precluded any fast time being made.

When the judge shouted "Gol" for the first heat the two were on even terms, but Richard began to draw Mace's white coat away from Murphy's black coat before they rounded the turn. At the quarter, in 36 seconds, there was a length between the coats, with a little streak of daylight. The white coat glided absad steadily without a skip or break, black-coated Murphy following in the same manner, unable to overtake the phantom slipping away in front of him. The white coat passed the half in 1:13, the black coat still a length in the rear, and they finished the mile in about the same positions, the judges hanging out the winner and time thus: "Richard, 2:28'k".

Before the second heat it was difficult for the pool sellers to obtain $15 on Edward against $50 on Richard. The knowing ones saw that, although both horses had been pronounced in fine condition. Edward was not up to his work. When the judges gave the word again Richard had drawn the white coat nearly to Edward's head, starting away in the lead. Murphy humped up his black coat a little, and sent his horse along at a gaining gait. Edward's rest between the heats had put a little freshness into him. As they rounded the turn the black coat lapped the phantom, and a murmur began to rise from the grand stand like breakers when they curl up for a ronr. But the roar didn't come. As soon as the black coat segan to piace the white one in eclipse, Richard spread his wings, reaching the quarter in 364 seconds, having shaken front. The blackboard announced: "Richard, 2:32."

During the rest for the final heat, one sanguine sport boldly bet $5 against $50 that Edward would win the trot. When the horses came up together for the send off, Richarddrew the white coat away from the black from the word." Go." At the quarter, in 38 seconds, the white coat loomed up a length shead. At the half, in 1:165, there was daylight between the phantom and its pursuer, and from this out the gap widened until there were half a dozen open lengths between the two. Neither horse had skipped during the three heats. The judges announced Richard as winner of the heat and trot. The last heat was trotted in 2:50.

Although the contest was a fine exhibition of trotting, the sports did not realize the excitement they anticipated.

The announced trot against time, in which John Murphy was to drive Honest Harry in an attempt to beat 2:25 to settle a wager of $1,000, was declared off by the judges on account of the unfitness of the track.

RACING IN THE RAIN.

Some of the Long Island Cinb's Yachts Withdrawn while Others Braved the Storm.

The seventh annual race of the Long Island Yacht Club was pluckily sailed yesterday in a pelting rain. The stormy weather caused many to withdraw, so that out of a large number of entries only eight started. The course was from off the Long Island Yacht Club house foot of Thirty-seventh street Robin's Reef buoy, to buoy off Fort Lafayette, thence to home stake boat, sailed over twice, but owing to the weather the second round was but owing to the weather the second round was omitted. The yachts crossed the line as follows: Lotos. 1:45:29: Marie. 1:46:04: Modesty. 1:48:19: Julia. 1:49:15: Bon Ton. 1:49:35; Bella S. 1:59:26: Fanny B. 1:51:20: Excelsior, 1:52:29. There was an easterly wind, and the tide was high water slack. All ran off before the wind for Robin's Recf. and were soon lost to sight in the driving mist. The Excelsior, though starting last, took the lead on the return, and kept it to the finish. The Lotos, returning, carried away her topmast, and Modesty her backstay. The interest centred in the race between the Lotos and Marie, which was very close. The Excelsior had a walk over in her class, and the new yacht Bon Ton led her class, throughout. The rain partially killed the wind soon after the start, and gave the yachtsmen a good wetting without the preferable sait seasoning. The start, finish, clapsed, and corrected times were as follows: CABIN SLOOPS.

OFEN SLOOPS. Excelsion 1:52:29 4:30:09 2:43:40 2:43:40 CAT RIG. 1.149:35 5.32:31 3.42:56 3.40:31 1.51:20 Not umed. 1.49:15 5.40:15 3.57:00 3.55:45 1.50:26 5.56:15 4.05:49 4.05:34 The Lotes wins in her class by only 56 % seconds, the Excelsior in the first-class open sloops, and the Ben Ten in the cat-rigged class by 15 minutes 14 seconds.

How a Brooklyn Architect Won a Bride. RONDOUT, N. Y., June 15.-A romance in real life, resulting in a happy marriage, has just been brought to light in this city. Not long ago Mr. Nathan W. Pratt. a marine architect of Brooklyn, visited this city in con-nection with his business. While leisurely strolling through one of the streets in company with a relative he through one of the streets in company with a relative he passed the Children's Church at Pootchocks. Miss Carrie Dendney, the organist, was just coming out of the church edifice as they passed. Mr. Frast asked what church it was Little thinking what was in store for her. Miss Dendney told him, and offered to allow the two to inspect it. After showing them around, she played a time on the organ for them. They then thanked her and departed. Two days afterward the pretty organist received a note, asking permission to call upon her. Having ascertained that Mr. Frast's position and character was such as to warrant an acquaintanceship, as invitation was extended to him to call. The acquaintance ripened into mutual love, and the result was a speedy marriage. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride on Thursday last the Rev. Issae Clark officiating. There were many elegant and valuable presents.

The Charge Against Commissioner Byas. At the final examination of Charity Commischarge of misdemeanor, in misappropriating $50 paid to him in compromise of a case against Robert Heywood, the father of the chief of anne Giver, the justice granted the motion to dismiss the case, as no offence had been proven.

During the storm of Sunday, as Mr. J. W. Hyatt was driving with his wife along the bank of the Passaic, on the East Newark side, a tree about a foot in diameter fell across the shafts, between the horse and carriage. The occupants were shocked, but not seriously hunged.

The greatest discovery and the best remedy now extant is found in Dr. C. W. BENSON'S CELERY AND CHAMOMILE FILLS. The properties of celery and Chamomile are peculiarly adapted to cure headache, and it remained for Dr. Benson to formulate and comound the properties so as to be made available. Dr. conson is recognized as one of the most eminent and accessful physicians in Baltimore, and his reputation s of itself a sufficient guarantee of the value of his medcine .- N. Y. Herald. Every one is now talking of Dr. C. W. BENSON'S CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS, and the wonderful ures they have effected since they have been placed perfore the public. It is the chief topic of conversation on the streets, in the hotels, and in private houses. These Pills are prepared expressly to cure headache, neuralgia, nervousness, and indigestion, and will cure any case, no matter how obstinate it may be, of either nick, nervous, or dyspeptic headsche, or neuraligia, nervousness, or sleeplessness.—Boston Globe.
